HALIFAX REGIONAL HONORS CERTIFIED NURSES

ROANOKE RAPIDS, NC (April 6, 2011)—Halifax Regional has honored its 38 Board Certified Nurses on National Certified Nurses Day.

The number of Certified Nurses is an indication of the quality of nursing care at Halifax Regional, said Karen Daniels, RN, vice president of nursing. “We are proud of the high quality nursing care provided to our patients at Halifax Regional, and the leadership of these Certified Nurses is critical to maintaining high standards of care for nursing.

“The knowledge-intensive requirements of modern nursing require extensive education and a strong personal commitment to excellence by the nurse,” Daniels added.

Halifax Regional has honored the following nurses: Shirley Allen, Bonnie Barnes, Dawn Bennett, Darlene Britton, Angie Brown, Nancy Bryant, Susan Bullock, April Clay, Michael Clay, Lisa Cooke, Karen Daniels, Carrie Davis, Gwen Davis, Cynthia Eaton, Ellen Glover, Maxine Green, Lisa Gupton, Janice Hales, Sarah R. Harris, Joanne Hoggard, Jane Holt, Belinda Jones-Hill, Amy Joseph, Gail Lane, Ruth Love, Lolita Magnaye, Sarah Massey, Barbara Moore, Tammy Perkinson, Donna Powell, Connie Silver, Shaletha Singleton-Johnson, Teressa Moore Sledge, Joyce Smith, Brenda Vincent, Ernestine Werner, Debra Williams, Judy Williams and Vickie Wells.

These nurses have been certified in such areas as medical-surgical, pediatric, mental health, oncology, emergency nursing, critical care, case management and others. Halifax Regional encourages national board certification for all its nurses.
