KAREN WILDER FOSTER RETURNS TO HALIFAX REGIONAL

A native of Roanoke Rapids, Karen Wilder Foster has been named Clinics Manager for Halifax Regional.

As manager, Foster works with Alice Oberholtzer, recently appointed administrator of the physician practices at Halifax Regional and Halifax Works, the occupational medicine program.

Foster joins Halifax Regional from Tilley Cardiology in Greensboro, where she was Practice Administrator. Prior to that position, she was office/optical manager for Hashmat A. Chaudhry, MD, an ophthalmologist in Roanoke Rapids, and a certified pharmacy tech at Halifax Regional prior to that.

Halifax Regional operates Roanoke Clinic, Wildwood Clinic, Eastern Carolina Gastroenterology, Roanoke Valley Internal Medicine and Rheumatology and the Hospitalists program at Halifax Regional.

Foster is a graduate of Roanoke Rapids High School and received her Associate's Degree in Business from Halifax Community College. She has completed continuing education classes at Duke Eye Center, Halifax Community College and received certificate as professional medical coder.

She and her husband, Tommy Foster, met while students at Roanoke Rapids High School. She has a step daughter, Mckenzie Foster, 10. Her daughter, Leslie Wilder, is a respiratory therapy student in Winston-Salem.
