For Immediate Release

TERRY MOORE JOINS HALIFAXWORKS

ROANOKE RAPIDS, NC (May 27, 2009)--Terry Moore, FNP, has joined HalifaxWorks, the occupational health program at Halifax Regional.

Moore has 23 years experience in occupational medicine providing care to workers in multiple settings. She is a Board Certified Family Nurse Practitioner and holds a number of certifications in occupational health.

HalifaxWorks, located at Halifax Medical Plaza on the campus of the Medical Center, is dedicated to meeting the needs of employers in Halifax and Northampton Counties with a variety of customized services.

“Our goal is to help maintain the health of employees, and get them back to work safely and quickly when there are injuries,” said Mary Pat Whaley, manager. “We tailor our programs to individual businesses, often making site visits to gain a better understanding of how and why injuries occur.”

Terry is a graduate of the East Carolina University School of Nursing and also obtained her master’s degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from ECU. She has expertise in worker’s compensation, workplace wellness and coordinating rehabilitative care.

HalifaxWorks provides the following services:

- Drug and breath alcohol testing for DOT and non-DOT employees
- Random drug testing
- Vision testing
- Pre/post-offer physicals, including DOT and Military physicals
- Pulmonary function testing
- Respirator fit testing
- Hearing testing and monitoring programs
- Wellness programs
- Vaccinations/flu shots and
- TB screenings.
